

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

CLINTON, MISSISSIPPI

We are at an important point of transition in the life of First United Methodist Church. For the past 19 months we have been buffeted by the head winds of COVID-19. Like all churches across the nation, we have seen a decline in attendance and financial giving. Yet, despite all those challenges, we are still here. Attendance is beginning to grow again, children are being baptized, and each week more programs are being added back. What's more, we believe that God has great things in store for us. So, the point of transition is moving from the posture of reacting to all the challenges, to being proactive about the future. From this point forward, we look to what God has for us next. Let's Finish Strong and Set Our Eyes on Kingdom Goals for Next Year!
